"The Precious and The Vile."

(By Geo. O. Barnes, Evangelist)

Even a careless reader will be impressed with the assiduous jealousy exhibited by the Great Creator in His work of "Restitution of all things." In keeping separated the "Things that differ," lest harm should come from their commingling.

And this anxiety has been fully justified by what has followed in all ages, while the work of restoration goes slowly on. Indeed, we may truthfully aver that nothing has so retarded "The restitution of all things spoken by the Holy Prophets since the world began," as the confounding of good and evil, brought about by the cunning of the great Adversary. The Lord's proviso in sending Jeremiah out to do His work, is the one qualification He requires of His Ministers now. "If thou shalt take forth the precious from the vile, thou shalt be as my mouth." (Jer. 15-19) and the inference plainly is, that in case His servants fail to do this, He discredits them as His ambassadors, whatever of human endorsement they may have. How this would thin the ranks of those who claim to speak in God's name in this century, I need not stop to explain. But I wish to show that "Elohim" "In the beginning" laid down this discriminating axiom most carefully. And the reason is obvious. On no account will God allow Satan's work to be mistaken for His own, if He can prevent it. His repeated and careful separations; His reiterated distinctions in nomenclature; "His line upon line and precept upon precept," all show that He foresaw imminent dangers clustering around this point, and endeavors carefully to guard it in every possible way. And so it has turned out. The Devil has exhausted his subtlety and made his most pronounced assault, just at this critical position. The "conflict of the ages" rages here, and the defeats of the Lord's hosts far outnumber the victories, until, taught by "The Great Tribulation," "God's silly sheep," who will learn it no other way, are taught the wisdom that will insure a final and decisive victory in the long strife.

Notice how the Good God "Divides the light from the darkness, and calls the light day and the darkness night." He will by no possibility, save wilful perversity, have the one mistaken for the other; and He denounces a "Wo" upon any of His prophets who call "Darkness light, evil good and bitter sweet;" henceforth (Isa. 5-20) let us see how Satan has "set at naught" this warning of the Lord, and carried out his first plan of ruin in Eden, by so confounding "Good and evil in the fatal tree, that our Mother Eve thought that the fruit that has poisoned her race in all time was "good for food," and so "ate of it, and gave to her husband and he did eat." Take the ills of life—loss of dear ones, loss of property, loss of health, as illustrated in Job. We are there, all admitted "Behind the scenes," and know beyond a peradventure who inflicted one and all of these calamities. We can see clearly the arch fiend with infernal joy doing his deadly work. He had to go out of "the presence of the Lord" before he could do anything; for hate, not love, is in everything he does. Yet, we hear the honest, but misguided servant of the Lord, attributing all his dreadful doings to God; and we, for whom the book of Job was written as a WARNING, copy Job's words of ignorance with approval and pass them on as current coin of the heavenly realm, instead of rejecting them with scorn as the Devil's counterfeit. Job was ignorant of the work of the Devil in his afflictions, and when he learned later on, who was the author of his misfortunes, "abhorred himself;" recanted his charges against God and "Repented in dust and ashes." But we, with a completed Bible in our hands, and a full knowledge of Satan's agency in the catastrophes of life, as summarized in the Book of Job, still ascribe all to God under the flimsy pretext—"The 'last ditch' of a false theology, that God 'permitted' Satan to do it, and all this Devil's work was by full approval of God. For permission by no honest use of the word can mean anything else but approval. I can understand the Devil doing his accursed work, because the Lord, however desirous to rescue, could not help without violating Satan's acknowledged rights. As in Eden, He could not deliver our first parents save by a deliberate purchase, and Satan's voluntary abdication of his right of conquest. God is just, even to Satan, (His enemy and ours) and paid his claim against the race represented in Adam and Eve in Eden, that He might justify them which believe in Jesus. I can understand God's helplessness in virtue of man's free will. But a deliberate surrender by God, of His best man on earth, into the hands of his worst enemy, simply to try an experiment of torture, when He knew His beloved servant would fall; and this at the Devil's suggestion, I cannot understand, as possible on the part of my God. I will not make Him out worse than myself, and I know that I would rather die than yield my beloved child into the hands of my worst enemy, if I had any power to prevent it. I will not believe that my God stands by and witnesses the sorrows of His creatures that He could prevent and yet does not. "I have not so learned Christ, Who is the brightness of the Father's glory and the express image of His person." He lived and walked on earth to show us the Father. He always did the Father's will. Do we find him causing sickness and death, storm and disaster? He healed the sick, raised the dead, rebuked the wind and calmed the storm. Why? Because all was the work of the Devil.

I have written elsewhere of the coroner's inquest held over the dead body of a soldier smitten by lightning, and the verdict was: "Died by a visitation of God." The surgeon saved by artificial respiration six others struck by the same bolt, who otherwise would have "died by a visitation of God." This soldier may have been a wicked man, and there may have been some connection between cause and effect in his case. But what of this from a newspaper? These are the headlines: "A cyclone's terrible work at McCook, Nebraska. Church blown down on children and 50 injured. Pastor buried under the organ and badly crushed about the body." "Visitation of God," who permitted it in His wise but inscrutable Providence. The theologians will tell us, I thought "His Providential care over us" was a common definition of Providence. Here is another "visitation of our Father in Heaven." It occurred in Mexico, Mo. "In the late disastrous tornado 12 persons were killed and an equal number wounded. Houses and barns were swept away bodily by the terrific force of the hurricane. A horse standing in the road was raised in the air, carried a considerable distance and dashed to the earth with such violence as to kill it on the spot. Trees were torn up by the roots, a number of cattle were killed by being thrown violently against walls and down steep declivities. A baby which a man was holding in his arms, was torn away, carried about 100 yards, dashed against a tree and instantly killed. Think of those innocent and helpless creatures of God, visited by Him in this wise. Or think of Him "permitting" it for some inscrutable reason. Ponder over the revelation in Job, which tells so plainly who it is that does these things; remember that Satan is the "Prince of the power of the air," (Eph. 2:2) He turns this blessing of God into an instrument of wreckage and death; given the power or right to do it by God's blood-bought people, whom he hath deceived into believing that God does them or "permits" them for some wise purpose. Jesus said: "A good tree can not bring forth corrupt fruit." Our fall in Gen. 3rd begins with "charging God," putting the blame on Him, and it has set the keynote of life. This confounding of God's work with Satan's always brings confusion, of which God is not the author. Every one knows I could multiply these instances a thousand fold and that there are mere "specimen" bricks of the house "built by God" for the exhibition of His glory, according to theology. I will adduce one more and quit the bathosome record to tell its own story of man's slander of the good God, and the horrible education we are giving our children, as our parents, before, taught us. "Fort Worth, Texas, March 18: The severe snow and wind storm which has raged during several days past over the Rocky Mountain country, from Wyoming to Central Texas, has been exceedingly severe upon live stock. It is estimated that 2,000 cattle have perished along the line of the Denver, Texas & Gulf Road between Trinidad, Col., and Fort Worth, Texas, during the past week, and as many more, North and East of Trinidad. Fruit all killed, Spring wheat just up and killed to the roots. Thousands of sheep in the midst of lambing, will die as the result of the blizzard now raging. Truly, if this be the "Providence" of God, Who saved Nineveh, because there were innocent children and "much cattle," who would have perished with the sinners of the city, then the God of the Old Testament is more merciful than the God of the New Testament. "The Lord our God is one God, and He is revealed in His son, Jesus the Christ, who always went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the Devil." I am Jehovah, I change not; Jesus Christ, the same yesterday, to-day and forever. Can you believe, dear reader, that God ever did such things Himself; or "permitted" them to be done by others? If you do, then why do you weep and lament and condole and sympathize one with another over such happenings? If they come from the Heavenly Father's hand, should you not rejoice and give thanks that His will is being done? When sickness comes, a "visitation of God," why do you send for a doctor to relieve you of your Father's visit? Think on these things and learn, I beg you to separate "The Precious from the Vile." Wo to them who "charge God foolishly." "Prepare to meet thy God," if such He be, Who does such things. How thankful I am that I do not have to meet such a God. For you will find, O man, believing in the God described above, that you will meet the Devil, when you face your God. We are all going on to meet exactly the God we believe in.

And now I charge you, "Learn by heart this axiom," taught so plainly in Gen. 1, and that God makes the A. B. C. of religion "pure and undefiled" and separate between, "the precious from the vile," as God divided Light and Darkness; Pure and bitter waters; Land from sea; and day from night. The former things are God's; the latter the Devil's. Learn the lessons "all along the line," and teach it, assiduously, to others. So shalt thou be owned as the "mouth" of God, though thou speakest with "stammering lips;" and thou shalt "adorn the doctrine of Christ and walk worthy of the Father unto all pleasing," though perchance "lightly esteemed" among men.

NOTE.
This is axiom five of a book of 10 axioms, written by Mr. Barnes. Of it he says in the preface: If anything I have ever written or spoken on holy themes was "inspired," this volume bears that stamp more unmistakably than any other I have penned. It was written with "only a step, as I thought, between me and the other world." His daughter (Miss Marie) is very desirous that this book be published without delay. Any contribution for this purpose may be sent to Mrs. Mary B. Craig, Stanford, Ky. Contributors may have the value of their contributions in one or more books.

All troops have been removed from the tobacco districts in the State in which night riders have been active for the first time since Gov. Willson ordered the soldiers to take the field shortly after he became Governor. Adj. Gen. Johnston recalled the last squad Friday from Eddyville and says that from all reports he anticipates no more trouble.

Near Death In Big Pond.

It was a thrilling experience to Mrs. Ida Soper to face death. "For years a severe lung trouble gave me intense suffering," she writes, "and several times nearly caused my death. All remedies failed and doctors said I was incurable. Then Dr. King's New Discovery brought quick relief and a cure so permanent that I have not been troubled in twelve years." Mrs. Soper lives in Big Pond, Pa. works wonders in Coughs and Colds, Sore Throats, Hemorrhages, La Grippe, Asthma, Croup, Whooping Cough and all Bronchial affections. 50c and $1. Trial bottle free. The Court of Appeals reversed the case of T. S. Anderson, one of the alleged bank wreckers of Owensboro, who was sentenced to three years in the penitentiary on the charge of falsely swearing to a report of his bank. A new trial is ordered. The reversal was made because the trial judge refused to vacate the bench or order a change of venue.

"My three year old boy was badly constipated, had a high fever and was in an awful condition. I gave him two doses of Foley's Orino Laxative and the next morning the fever was gone and he was entirely well. Foley's Orino Laxative saved his life." A. Wolkash, Casimer, Wis. New Stanford Drug Co.

Quite a number of business men and farmers have expressed their approval of Danville's opportunity for a population of 20,000 or more by interurban lines as recently mentioned. In addition to passenger traffic, an immense freight business would be their's from this point, fed by a well-timbered territory to the Adair and Russell county lines. This certainly is the flood tide of Danville's opportunity and it would lead her on to fame and fortune.

The following is a Washington dispatch: When Senator Bradley reached Washington and caught sight of his first batch of mail, he turned to one of those who came with him and asked: "Where can I get a young man who is a first class stenographer, clear of head and clean of character?" "Luther Willis, Jr., of Shelbyville, Ky.," was the reply. "I know him and his people," was the Senator's reply. "Wire him that he can get a $1,600 job if he will accept at once." This is the Senator's way of transacting business. This young man is the next oldest son of Rev. W. S. Willis, pastor of the Christian church here. He is holding the position down all right and delighted with the work.

A Religious Author's 'Statement.'

Rev. Joseph H. Fespersion, Salisbury, N. C., who is the author of several books, writes: "For several years I was afflicted with kidney trouble and last winter I was suddenly stricken with a severe pain in my kidneys and was confined to bed eight days unable to get up without assistance. I commenced taking Foley's Kidney Remedy, and the pain gradually abated and finally ceased. I cheerfully recommend Foley's Kidney Remedy." New Stanford Drug Co.

LED by Rev. Thomas R. White, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, and Rev. James Brown, pastor of the First Baptist church, 500 persons raided a blind tiger at Bloomington, Ind., and hauled away a car-load of beer and whisky. Following the raiders were the prosecutor and the sheriff, and when the place was thrown open the barkeeper and the proprietor were both placed under arrest. If such a method were adopted in Stanford the blind tiger operators would cease from troubling for a while at least.

THE Department of Agriculture is making a census of the birds and finds that there are 1,414,000,000 in the United States. The purpose of studying birds is to find out which are useful and which are harmful to the farmer. The result is that some birds are losing their good reputations, while others heretofore banned have been shown to be worthy.

BOTH Houses of the Nebraska Legislature have passed the bank deposit guarantee bill, championed by Hon. W. J. Bryan, and it is now up to the Governor. PRESIDENT ELIOT, of Harvard, in his annual report again advocates a three-year course for bachelor degrees of arts and sciences, notes that notwithstanding the hard times gifts to the university amounted to $891,896 and once more scathingly denounces football as a demoralizing spectacle and unfit for college sport.

This magnificent bred young stallion will make the season of 1902 at my stable at Stanford, Ky., (better known as the Dr. Bailey place) at $5 to insure a living colt.

Don Varrick is a beautiful chestnut, short back, heavy bone; in fact the highest type of the trotter. He is by the great Onward silver 2:05 1/2, that won the $500 Transylvania in a semi heat race in 1902 and the same year won the $1,000 Bonner Memorial and the M. & M in broken heats and sold for $10,000 and later sold for $25,000. Don Varrick is bred exactly like Spanish Queen that won the $500 Transylvania in 1902, making a record of 2:07 and was classed as one of the big four, being one of the greatest money winners on the grand circuit last year. Onward silver is by Onward, one of the great stallions and sires of George Wilkes, Onward's dam was the dam of Director, the sire of that great family of trotters and pacers.

Don Varrick is a full sister to The Wag 2:15 1/2, and half sister to Madeline Patchen, the dam of Rubber, 2:10; Winchester, 2:10; Billy Wilton 2:20, and Miss R 2:20; 2nd dam Mary, by Boggs' Grey Eagle, the dam of The Wag 2:15 1/2, Madeline Patchen, the dam of Rubber, 2:10; Winchester, 2:10; Billy Wilton 2:20, and Miss R 2:20.

Don Varrick's dam produced Dr. Connor that paced a public half mile on the Lexington track to the fellow and won $10,000. S. W. Hubbard, of New Haven, Conn., for $10,000. She also produced Maggie 1:40 that trotted a half mile on the same track in 1:40 and later sold for $500.

Please note the rich inheritance of speed on both sides—not a missing link for generations. Bred to this fellow and you can't miss the three things every breeder looks for—size, speed and looks. See him before making your mare season money due when mares are parted with or bred to another horse. Mares kept at 10 cents per day and all care taken but will not be responsible for accidents or escapes.

MR. L. F. HUBBLE, of Rockcastle Springs, who came to Olympian Springs, just over the Lincoln line in Casey, in October last, is still there and says he will remain until May 1. Having tried Hot Springs, Ark., Martinsville, Ind., and other health resorts for rheumatism and failing to get relief, he had about abandoned hope of improvement, but was induced to try Olympian Springs. He is now entirely free from rheumatism, has not an ache nor pain and, using his own words, is "a new man." He is loud in his praise of Olympian water and is a good advertisement for Proprietor Sims' enterprise.

MR. JOHN R. BROOKS, of Atlanta, Ga., has joined his family here for a few days' visit with Mrs. Ann Grimes. Mr. Brooks says that prohibition is doing more for the South than an outsider can imagine. In so large a city as Atlanta it was feared the movement would prove a failure, but even in these past few months of trial, everybody is delighted and would vote any "wet" measure down that could be proposed. This past winter is the first that Atlanta has been dry, and business has improved wonderfully and charitable organizations have almost been put out of business. Heretofore from 1,500 to 2,000 people have been on the charity of the citizens of Atlanta, but this past winter there has scarcely been a call for aid.—Harrodsburg Herald. Mr. Brooks is an old Crab Orchard boy and is well known here.

PENCE.—Mrs. Katherine Vaughn Pence, relict of Mr. Adam M. Pence, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Walter O. Walker, at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon of a complication of troubles, aged 51. Deceased was a daughter of the late George Vaughn, was a devout member of the Methodist church, a good wife and a kind and indulgent mother. She leaves only one child, the daughter mentioned above, but a sister, Mrs. Allie Hall, is also left to mourn her loss, and for them and other relatives much sympathy is felt. Mrs. Pence had spent her entire life in Lincoln county and she was loved by a wide circle of friends. She was an exceedingly kind-hearted, sympathetic woman and a splendid friend of the poor and unfortunate. She will be sadly missed by her many friends and acquaintances but none will feel the loss so keenly as the daughter, with whom she made her home and who so almost idolized. Brief funeral services were held at the Walker home at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon, at which Rev. T. W. Barker officiated, and afterwards the remains were laid beside those of her husband in Buffalo cemetery.

EGGS for sale from Red hens, Wild Mallard ducks and Toulouse geese. Mrs. W. J. Edmiston, Crab Orchard, Ky.

MRS. KATE MILLER sold to Mr. S. J. Emery 40 acres of land on the Lancaster pike, close to the town limits, at $150.

I HAVE moved to my store-room on East Main street and am prepared to do up-to-date plumbing and tinning. Come in and see the best roofing on the market. W. K. Warner.

THE pike between McKinney and the Casey county line is almost impassable and very jackable. The attention of Pike Supervisor Sam K. Dudderar is called to the condition of the road and a request is made by the public that he take steps to improve it.

ROBINSON.—Mr. J. C. Robinson, one of Lancaster's leading business men and best citizens, died of heart trouble Sunday, aged 69. He is survived by his wife and one daughter. Mr. Robinson, who was an uncle of Mrs. J. B. Paxton, of this place, was a leading member of the Christian church and a fine gentleman. His funeral will be preached at 10:30 this morning by Eld. F. M. Tindler and the burial will follow in the Lancaster cemetery.

POWELL.—Quintan Powell, aged 31, died at Hendersonville, N. C., Friday of pneumonia and the remains were brought to his father, Capt. B. F. Powell's, and buried Sunday afternoon at McCormack's church. Rev. J. Q. Montgomery preached an appropriate funeral sermon. Deceased is survived by his wife and little baby, only a few months old. Mr. Powell had been a member of the Christian church for a number of years and was prepared to meet his Maker. He was a brother of Mrs. W. G. Withers, of this place, and the sympathy of the community is extended to her and the other members of the bereaved family.

Sired by Galton 12910, the sire of 24 in the 2:28 list, 16 in 2:10 and better, claimed to be the greatest sire in the world. 1st dam Daisy Field (sired by Galton 12910, son of Hambleton 10, dam by Seely's American Star. Enlisted 2:28 in 1900, his daughters have 40 in 2:30 or better, 32 in 2:40 or better, Kentucky Prince, Jr., sire of J. Galton's colts have gone against and defeated the best in harness classes and round-rings, they are in great demand, selling as high as $1,000 after maturity, yearlings from $100 to $500. Galton will stand at my stable 2 miles West of Hustonville on Bradford's place, at $15 to insure a living colt. Money due it more is traded after being bred. Almont Dare 3228.

A. S. H. R.

Sired by Dignity Dare 1892, he by Chester Dare 10, he by Black Squirrel 58, he by King William 95, 1st dam Foxway 478, also registered in V. B. A. T. H. R. Sire by Abdullah Mambrino (5715), he by Almont (82) 2nd dam Lady Davis by Crit Davis, by Hourion Chief; 3rd dam Mattie S., by Foreign Light, by Foreigner, by Imported Glencoe; 4th dam Bettie C., by Cunningham's Copper-bottom; 5th dam by Imported Buzzard.

NOTE.—Almont Dare, so far as we are able to discover, is the first horse on record having to his credit the honor of defeating with his own progeny those of his great sire, Dignity Dare, doing so with his first crop of colts every time they came together. As an individual this is a very attractive horse, 16 hands high with lots of weight and flesh, color, bay; action extremely high and fast. Shows distinct saddle gait, all very fast and pleasant. A full brother to the great gelding, Nettleton, that sold at 4 years for $5,000 and to the great show mare, Fanny Dare, that won more premiums for the number of shows than any mare ever sired by Dignity Dare.

Were it not for two splits coming on him he would easily have won the State Saddle Championship. This horse is a result of a long and careful mating of the very best country afforded. His lacking in blood and individuality, is as strong as Gibraltar and his colts are rapidly proving him. See this horse and you will be well paid. He will make the season of 1909 at our stable, 2 1/2 miles from Hustonville on the Hustonville & Liberty pike, at $15 to insure a living colt. Mares traded or bred elsewhere render season due at time of such transaction. Will also stand a mile jack at $5.

Grass furnished in abundance at $2 per month. Out personal attention at all stock but will not be responsible for accidents.

Weak Kidneys

Weak Kidneys surely point to weak kidney nerves. The Kidneys, like the Heart and the Stomach, find their weakness, not in the organ itself, but in the nerves that control and guide and strengthen them. Dr. Shoop's Restorative is a medicine specifically prepared to reach these controlling nerves. To doctor the Kidneys alone, is futile. It is a waste of time, and of money as well.

If your back aches or is weak, if the urine scalds, or is dark and strong, if you have symptoms of Bright's or other distressing or dangerous kidney disease, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative a month—Tablets or Liquid—and see what it can and will do for you. Druggist recommend and sell
